

PARALLEL LIVES

Pepys and his contemporaries

Monthly supper talks on Monday evenings

GRAHAM FAWCETT explores the lives and works of some of the major figures of Samuel Pepys's lifetime (1633-1703), including John Milton, Isaac Newton and John Bunyan. Did their paths ever cross? Whether Pepys's involvement in the lives of these others is close or no more than a walk-on part, it is the same London they all inhabited, often no more than a few streets from each other and with daily events to face in common.

Come and explore their parallel lives...

WHERE: ST OLAVE CHURCH HART ST
LONDON EC3R 7NB
(TRAVEL DETAILS OVERLEAF)

WHEN: MONDAY EVENINGS THROUGHOUT 2009

TIME: 6:15PM – FOOD SERVED – 6:45PM – EVENT STARTS

TICKETS: £12 each – pay on the door or contact Phil Manning on 020 7488 4318

The 2009 Series: (with special guests & new programme items)

- 19 January: Introduction to Parallel Lives
- 2 February: Pepys and 1660
- 2 March: Pepys and John Milton (1608-1674)
- 6 April: Pepys and John Evelyn (1620-1706)
- 11 May: Pepys and Andrew Marvell (1621-1678)
- 1 June: Pepys and John Bunyan (1628-1688)
- 6 July: Pepys and 1667
- 7 September: Pepys and John Dryden (1631-1700)
- 5 October: Pepys and The Royal Society (founded 1660)
- 2 November: Pepys and Aphra Behn (1640-1689)
- 7 December: Pepys and Daniel Defoe (1660-1731)

Said of the 2008 series: "...so hugely enjoyable. The best value in town."

ST OLAVE HART ST

Travel Details

TUBE: BANK (LEAVE STATION BY EXIT 6)
TOWER HILL

OVERGROUND: FENCHURCH STREET

BUSES: 15, 25, 40, 42, 67, 78, 100, 115, 135, 205, 254